Japs Machine-Gun Passenger Plane

ONLY 5 OF 19 PERSONS ALIVE AFTER ATTACK

American Pilot Is Certain Incident Was Planned

Hongkong, Aug. 24.—(AP)—Only five of 19 persons aboard a Chinese-American owned airliner when it was reported forced down and machine-gunned today by Japanese aircraft were known to have escaped alive.

The large land plane, carrying two women, a baby, a child and 11 men as passengers and a four-man crew, was forced to alight on a small river between Canton and Macao on the south China coast.

H. L. Woods of Winfield, Kansas, the pilot and only American aboard, reported Japanese aircraft riddled the airliner as it sank. Besides Woods, the known survivors are his radio operator, Joe Loh, C. N. Lou, a passenger, and two unidentified passengers. All on the plane except Woods were Chinese.

Planes Open Fire

Survivors said two Japanese planes opened fire on the airliner shortly after it took off from Hongkong. The pilot feared the planes were about to strike off the attack.

A little later five pursuit planes attacked, diving and zooming close to the large plane so that it was forced down.

Lou, who reached a Macao hospital with a bullet wound in his neck, gave this account of the attack:

"I fear I am one of the few survivors among the passengers, because the Japanese planes after machine-gunning us while in the air, continued to do so while we were attempting to go ashore. x x x

"Before we could really get clear of the plane the Japanese returned not once but again and again, machine-gunning us mercilessly. It was a scene of utter confusion with bullets splashing in the water around us.

"I was hit by a bullet in the neck and could do no more than swim and run blindly under the diving airplanes. My impression is that many passengers never had a chance even to get out of the plane.

Pilot Escapes

Woods, the pilot, and Loh, the radio operator, escaped serious injury. Woods was taken aboard the United States gunboat Mindanao at Macao.

Woods' his radio operator and Lou, used sampans to traverse the network of creeks, rivers and canals for 10 miles to Shekhi in the Chugshan district from which they were rushed 25 miles to Macao by automobile.

Then Woods messaged:

"Landed on river okay. Japanese machine-gunned us. Killing or wounding 12 passengers also co-pilot and steward. Radio Operator Loh, one passenger and myself survived. Other 14 unaccounted for. Ship sunk in river."

Woods' message did not jibe with the number of passengers known to have been aboard the plane. Nor, apparently, did he know that two other passengers, besides Lou, had been admitted to a hospital at Shekhi.

Officials of the China National Aviation Corporation said:

"There is no doubt that the attack was entirely premeditated. The plane was clearly marked and was on a regularly scheduled run."

LOST: LOWER PLATE

Sticks Head Out of Plane, Loses Masticators

Tulsa, Okla., Aug. 24.—(AP)—The advertisement read:

"Lost—One lower plate false teeth. Near Perry, Okla., $25 reward."

Arthur O. Olson, oil drilling contractor, explained:

"Tuesday afternoon I was flying from Wichita down to Oklahoma City in my plane. We were at about 6,000 feet and cruising 200 miles an hour. I stuck out my head to get rid of some gum and—whosh—away went my lower teeth."

ADOLF HITLER GIVES HUNGARY PEACE PLEDGE

Guarantees Border Inviolability In State Dinner

Berlin, Aug. 24.—(AP)—Chancellor Adolf Hitler tonight guaranteed the inviolability of the borders of neighboring Hungary in an exchange of toasts with his guest, Admiral Nicholas Horthy, regent of Hungary, at a magnificent state dinner.

Emphasizing the centuries of friendship and cooperation between Germany and the old Austro-Hungarian empire, Hitler said:

"This firmly founded community based on a mutually unshakable trust will be of special value to both peoples now that we as neighbors through historic events (Union of Germany and Austria) have found our definite and official boundaries."

Stresses Friendship

Admiral Horthy, in responding, stressed the three-cornered mutual friendship of Hungary, Italy and Germany and their common will for a "just peace."

"The wish for a continuation of peaceful reconstruction which unites us and our friends is safe insurance that our people can pursue successfully the basic aim of peace based on mutual good will and justice through further close collaboration, thereby serving best their own interests and those of the rest of the world," the regent said.

Spanish Loyalists Still Hold Sector Along Ebro River

Franco Commanding Attack In This Area To Encourage Rebels

Hendaye, France, (At the Spanish Front), Aug. 24.—(AP)—Reports from the month-old Ebro river battlefront in south Catalonia indicated tonight that Spanish government forces still controlled the west bank.

Concerted attacks by planes, tanks, artillery and troops had given the insurgents slight gains since the government's surprise thrust of July 25, government advisers acknowledged, but only at a heavy cost and without budging the main government line.

The government still was entrenched east of Gandesa, these reports said. Gandesa was Generalissimo Francisco Franco's south Catalonia regional headquarters.

The Ebro counter offensive was said now to be personally commanded by Franco from his base at Villalba and another pressing against the Gandesa-Mora De Ebro road.

Chicago Railroad Strike Unsettled

Chicago, Aug. 24.—(AP)—Labor controllers argue in vain today for a truce which would permit restoration of service by the Chicago, North Shore and Milwaukee railroad.

After a three and one-half hour conference with representatives of the electric line and the unions involved, Harry E. Scheck, federal deputy, H. C. Scheck, federal deputy, announced no agreement had been reached.

The North Shore Line, in federal receivership, halted its service between Chicago and Milwaukee eight days ago, when members of the Amalgamated Association of Street Electric Railway and Motor Coach Employees voted to cease work in protest against a 15 per cent wage cut. The road employs about 1,300.

CHICAGO CHURCH UNION ASKS FOR GAMBLING QUIZ

Federation Declares Scandal Is Brewing In The City

Chicago, Aug. 24.—(AP)—The Chicago Church Federation asked an official investigation today of what it called the "take" in Chicago's gambling business to determine "what officials participate in this unholy profit."

The federation, declaring that a "scandal of first magnitude is brewing in Chicago," made its request in an open letter to Governor Henry Horner asking the state's chief executive to institute the inquiry "if the city and county refuse to investigate."

Axemen Strike Again

The federation's action came shortly before axemen of State's Attorney Thomas J. Courtney struck again in his war against Chicago handbooks.

Two squads of the prosecutor's men wrecked two more alleged handbooks, seized five men and routed about 450 patrons, many of them women, in the eighth and ninth wards since last Wednesday. When Courtney opened his anti-gambling drive after failing through technicalities to win convictions in the courts, a police court freed forty-nine gambling raid defendants today, ruling that the establishments were not adequately described in search warrants and that paraphernalia seized was not legal evidence.

Thunder Showers Chase Heat Wave In Half of State

Corn Shucker Killed in Field Near Marengo, Ill., by Lightning

Chicago, Aug. 24.—(AP)—Thunder showers passed over most of Illinois today and left temperatures in the seventies throughout the upper half of the state.

Lightning bolts flicked to earth in several communities causing one death and several instances of property damage.

Vernon Marsh, 19, of Marengo, Ill., while picking corn in a field near Belvidere, Ill., was killed by a bolt which killed his cousin, Charles Stogsdill, 19, of Woodstock, and killed a mule.

Forecasters J. R. Lloyd said that moderate temperatures would remain for at least the next two days. Clear skies would prevail in the north and central portions of the state, but showers may be expected in the southeast, he said.

Hold Two Women In Farmer's Death

Fairfield, Ill., Aug. 24.—(AP)—The 6-year-old son of Felix Shannon, Main Mount Erie farmer, was ready tonight to confront two women hitch-hikers held here for questioning in connection with the slaying of his father.

Other witnesses who saw two women in an automobile with Shannon were being summoned by authorities to view the suspects.

One of the women, tall, slender and red-haired, was identified by Sheriff Ernest Burkett as Mrs. Jean Brooks, 23, of Elizabethtown, Tennessee. Her stocky-built companion was said to be Mrs. Beulah Honeycutt, 25, of Johnson City, Tenn.

Party Backs French Premier on Hours

Paris, Aug. 24.—(AP)—The radical Socialist party gave its president, Premier Edouard Daladier, full backing for his plan to abandon the 40-hour week today after he had warned that German military preparations made necessary a strengthening of France's defense measures.

An abstract of his speech, delivered behind closed doors to the party executive committee, said the "premier proposed in detail the military preparations of Germany, citing the effective work under arms and showing the accelerated rhythm of war industries beyond the Rhine."

Maneuvering Germans Span River

With all Europe watching with nervous eyes, Germany has called to the colors a million men in the greatest military maneuvers since the Kaiser's great war games before the World War. Pictured above are engineers of the Nazi army building a pontoon bridge across the River Elbe in preparation for the great military rehearsal.

EYSTON FAILS OFFICIALLY IN SPEED RECORD

Shatters Old Mark, But Timing Device Fails To Work

Bonneville Salt Flats, Utah, Aug. 24.—(AP)—George E. T. Eyston drove his ponderous automobile over the salt flats today in an attempt to shatter the 360-mile-per-hour mark set by a Blitzen Benz in 1929.

The tall, lean Englishman flashed his "Thunderbolt" once through the measured mile at 347.135 miles per hour, faster than man has ever traveled before on land.

On the return trip, required to strike an average and make the mark the electric eye that measures the official time failed to work, depriving him of an official record.

PRISON GUARDS HELD IN DEATH OF FOUR MEN

Charge Four Men Bled To Death In Cells

Philadelphia, Aug. 24.—(AP)—Two prison guards were held on homicide charges today in what an official investigation revealed was the bled-to-death of four hunger-striking convicts in steam-heated punishment cells at the Philadelphia county prison.

The arrest, precipitated a run-off war between Mayor S. Davis Wilson and District Attorney Charles F. Kelly to fix the blame for the prisoners' suffocation during an organized revolt against "monstrous" food.

Two leading investigators declared the convicts died in an almost airtight cell block in which steam radiators had been turned on full for two days. The investigators and a county judge said the circumstances showed utter ferocity "and wanton cruelty."

Mayor Wilson ordered the arrest of the guards, Alfred W. Brough, 38, and Francis Smith, 43. Homicide squad detectives took them to city hall.

When the men appeared before Magistrate Nathan Beifel, assistant District Attorney John A. Boyle protested that the arrests were "premature" and asked the magistrate to exclude testimony. Beifel agreed and held the guards without bail for a hearing next Tuesday.

Crete Remains Of Frank M. Hawks

Buffalo, N. Y., Aug. 24.—(AP)—A friend of Lieutenant Commander Frank M. Hawks made ready tonight for a sorrowful flight back to Connecticut with the ashes of America's famous speed ace, who was killed in a plane crash late yesterday.

Mack R. Carlin, Hawks' roommate and flying companion, will take off tomorrow for Hawks' home town of Hedding, Conn., where the 41-year-old flier's widow lives and where he will be buried. Hawks' body was cremated in accordance with his own request.

Japanese Award

Rome, Aug. 24.—(AP)—The highest decoration Japan awards to foreigners, the Grand Cordon of the Supreme Order of the Chrysanthemum, was bestowed upon Premier Mussolini today in a new affirmation of Italian-Japanese friendship.

Japs Believe War Nearly Over

Tokyo.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press)—Well-informed Japanese believe the war in China is nearly finished.

"The air is thick with peace," one high-ranking government official has put it.

For home consumption, however, Japanese officials make such statements as that of Lieutenant General Seishiro Itagaki, war minister, who asserted recently that Japan would continue fighting as long as Chiang Kai-Shek remained head of the Chinese government, and added: "That may be for ten or twenty years."

YOUNG MOTHER CUTS OFF HAND, RIPS EYE OUT

Makes Atonement After Reading Bible Verse

Merced, Calif., Aug. 24.—(AP)—A young mother, who accepted literally a Biblical admonition for atonement of sins lay in a hospital here tonight, her left hand and her right eye missing.

Authorities spoke in amazement of the story told by Woodrow Harwell, 20, Texas cotton picker. He said his wife, Ola, 25, after reading her Bible, ripped out her eye with a pair of scissors and then hacked her hand off with an axe.

P. A. Stevens, district attorney, said Harwell told him his wife's strange action occurred last night after they and her two young sons had knelt in their one-room cabin and read from the Bible.

Reads From Bible

"And if thy hand or thy foot causeth thee to stumble, cut it off. And cast it from thee; it is good for thee to enter into life maimed or halt, rather than giving two hands or two feet to be cast into the eternal fire."

"And if thine eye causeth thee to stumble, pluck it out, and cast it from thee. It is good for thee to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into the hell of fire."

Mr. Harwell arose, her husband said, walked from the cabin and mutilated herself. He said his own emotional disturbance weakened him so he remained in the cabin. He said his wife returned unaided to the cabin "apparently without pain." He gave her first aid and two hours later called an ambulance.

Physicians at Merced hospital found Mrs. Harwell's arms so badly mutilated that they had to amputate it above the wrist. They said, however, her condition was good and she would survive.

Harwell was questioned by officers and later released.

Osteopath Claims No Evidence That He Killed His Wife

His Attorneys Say She Took Poison, But Post-Mortem Refutes Alibi

Lafayette, Mo., Aug. 24.—(AP)—Dr. William F. Lamance's attorneys charged today, state investigators were "stalling" because they lacked proof the osteopath's wife was murdered, but the prosecutor rejoined "I refuse to be rushed off my feet."

Defense demands were refused for an immediate preliminary hearing to determine if the 200-pound osteopath is to be held for trial on a murder charge filed against him after discovery of his wife's body in a fruit cellar. Prosecutor G. D. Green said the preliminary probably would be Monday.

Lon R. Owen, the defense attorney, contends Mrs. Ella Lamance, 29-year-old former nurse, took poison and points to a pathologist's report poison was found in liquid which Owen submitted as being "stomach contents."

Green insists the defense had no stomach contents and a state chemist has refuted the suicide theory with a report no poison was found either in stomach or any vital organs.

Police Slayer Has Insanity Defense

Michigan City, Ind., Aug. 24.—(AP)—The defense offered evidence today calculated to bolster the insanity defense plea of Orelle J. Easton, 25, of Valley City, N. D., who is on trial for his life as the indicted slayer of State Policeman W. Raymond Dixon of South Bend.

Defense Attorney Paul Krueger of Michigan City introduced depositions from nine Valley City residents, including one from Dr. S. A. Zimmerman.

A COSTLY ERROR Typist's Mistake Costs Mississippi $20,000

Jackson, Miss., Aug. 24.—(AP)—A typist's error apparently will cost the state of Mississippi $20,000.

The legislature appropriated that sum to put out a gas well fire in Rankin county and fixed a 10 per cent tax on other wells of the same rank from Aug. 31 through March 31 to reimburse the state.

In the bill, it was discovered yesterday, the dates were typed Aug. 31, 1939 to March 31, 1939 ending the tax before it starts.

ROOSEVELT'S PRIMARY STAND IS CRITICIZED

Democrats To Give Nominees Support Despite Attack

Washington, Aug. 24.—(AP)—President Roosevelt's denunciation of Republican participation in Democratic primaries had two immediate reactions in Washington today.

1. Chairman Brown (D-Mich.) of the Democratic senatorial campaign committee—with direct reference to the Idaho situation where friends of Senator James P. Pope blamed his primary defeat on Republican votes—said party nominees could expect the committee's support "unless there was something fundamentally wrong with the primaries that nominated them."

2. Chairman John Hamilton of the Republican National Committee said in a statement that "in view of his recent political activities Mr. Roosevelt must have had his tongue in his cheek when he asserted Republican participation in Democratic primaries violated simple political morality."

The chief executive's assertion, he added, constitutes "an indictment of the election laws of a number of sovereign states."

Brown, who told reporters he expected the committee to have $20,000 to $40,000 in campaign funds at its disposal, made it clear that before its support was withheld from a duly nominated party candidate, it must first receive representatives from the party organization in the state that the primary election was improper.

"Justice Will Free Me" Slayer Claims

Chicago, Aug. 24.—(AP)—Even as Rudolph Sikora was saying in his county jail cell today, "if there is any such thing as justice I should be given my freedom," the state was preparing to place him on trial for the slaying of Edward Solomon, 35-year-old rival for his wife's affections.

Assistant State's Attorney Leslie Curtis said he would present details of the shooting last Monday on a busy north side corner to the grand jury Aug. 30.

A coroner's jury recommended yesterday that Sikora be held on a charge of murder.

Republicans Seek Illinois Platform

Peoria, Ill., Aug. 24.—(AP)—A steering sub-committee of the state Republican platform committee tussled today with a mass of suggestions in an effort to shape party policies into a suitable credo for presentation to the state convention here Aug. 31.

Edward A. Hayes of Decatur, chairman of the platform committee, would make no statement on the group's progress as members adjourned until next Tuesday morning, when the full platform committee will meet.

Revaccination For Smallpox is Urged

Chicago, Aug. 24.—(AP)—Revaccination once in every five years for smallpox immunity was urged by two Kansas doctors today in an article appearing in the Journal of the American Medical Association.

Drs. David T. Loy and M. W. Hubbard, of Manhattan, Kas., said in a study of students at Kansas State college showed there was a wide individual variation in the duration of smallpox immunity following vaccination.

POLICY RACKET TRIAL IS UPSET BY DATE ERROR

Tammany Leader In Clash With Dewey, Witness

New York, Aug. 24.—(AP)—James J. Hines, veteran Tammany district leader accused of accepting money to protect the Dutch Schultz policy racket, stood up in Supreme Court today and cried out that George Weinberg, one of the state's principal witnesses then on the stand, was lying.

The dramatic moment came late in the afternoon after Lloyd Paul Stryker, chief defense lawyer, had begun cross examination of the witness.

Weinberg, a henchman of Schultz, had testified he paid Hines $500 a week or more for protection, starting in the spring of 1932. The payments, he testified, took place frequently in Hines' apartment, Central Park west and 104th street.

Checks on Dates

Stryker, an adroit examiner, had Weinberg repeat the time embraced by his visits, had him describe how he parked his car outside, had him describe the layout of the apartment, and returning to the time element, asked Weinberg if he was sure he had paid Hines there in the summer of 1932.

Weinberg, soft-spoken and composed, insisted he had.

"Didn't you know," Stryker suddenly shouted, "that Mr. Hines never moved into that apartment until the first day of October 1932?"

The witness, apparently undismayed, shook his head.

The blue ribbon jury and the spectators stared at Stryker, at Justice Ferdinand Pecora, at Hines himself, the lone defendant.

District Attorney Thomas E. Dewey and his associates looked a little surprised. For a day and a half Dewey had led Weinberg through the mazes of the Schultz policy operations, drawing descriptions of various occurrences, the payment of money to Hines, the story of the transfer of police who raided the policy banks, and the story of the magistrates' court "fixes." Involving Magistrate Hulon Capshaw and the late Magistrate Francis J. Erwin.

Weinberg's testimony Hines had testified he personally had taken $3,000 to Hines in the election campaign of 1933 and had given it to him in the presence of William C. Dodge, Tammany candidate who won the district attorneyship that year.

"Will you stand, Mr. Hines?" Stryker asked.

"Look Mr. Hines in the face," Stryker directed Weinberg "and repeat again whether you saw him or not either at or in his apartment house between the month of April and the first of October. Look at him and say that."

Weinberg, looked and answered quietly:

"I did."

"You Lie," Hines Says

Hines stared back, and then:

"You know you lie," he said.

The courtroom, still at the moment, broke into noisy whispering.

Justice Pecora addressed the jury. "Gentlemen of the jury, disregard the statement just made by the defendant, the remark he just addressed to the witness. The remark was highly improper. It should not have been made and I want to admonish the defendant against any repetition."

Stryker apologized and offered the copy of Hines' lease for identification.

A short time later Justice Pecora ordered a recess.

Indict Brother Of Senator Rush Holt

Clarksburg, W. Va., Aug. 24.—(AP)—Matthew S. Holt, Jr., 40, older brother of U. S. Senator Rush D. Holt, (D-W. Va.) was indicted in the United States district court today on two charges of forging endorsements to works progress administration checks totalling $57.

Holt was formerly associated with the WPA Parkersburg office. He walked into the office of the U. S. District clerk and asked whether there had been an indictment, then posted $2,000 bond for his appearance next Monday in federal court in Fairmont.

William C. Howard, said there had been no warrant issued for the senator's brother.

Holt's father, Mathew S. Holt, Sr., former Weston, W. Va., mayor, supplied the bond.

"Putting Sting In It"

Why don't you write something with sting in it? A friendly critic asked the other day.
What do you want us to do? We are not going to give you something with a sting in it, but we will give you something with a sting in it.

Whereupon we proceeded to give our friend a little philosophy on the business of writing an editorial column. We may have convinced him to our belief, or he may still be craving verbal fireworks and excitement. But at least he has our sting on the subject.

"When you meet a friend do you try to say every mean thing about him you can think of?" we asked the critic. "Do you purposely try to insult him and make him feel badly? Do you intentionally select a subject for conversation that will prove disagreeable? Do you try to 'sting' him every time you get an opportunity?"
When we set down to write our column, we knew the next morning we were going to visit with our friends. We'll try to have a pleasant word for them; we do not purposely say things to hurt except in extreme cases, when we are confident that we are justified.

"We like to visit with our readers through the medium of the editorial column," that with them, argue with them, if we feel the urge—but never "sting" them.

The friend who likes "sting" in his column matter saw our point. "Maybe I'm something to that," he conceded.

Editorial columns of the modern newspaper can be interesting and constructive without personalities, and without ill-humored tirades against individuals or groups.
If we had to "sting" someone every day, we would be a very different person.

He Flew Over Here

Lieut. Commander Frank Monroe Hawks, who met death in an airplane crash Tuesday night at East Aurora, New York, flew over Jacksonville on his record-breaking coast to coast flight in 1933.

Only a few of the most alert and eagle-eyed citizens saw his plane as it shot over the city. It was barely visible because of the great height. The time the plane passed over this city and the route of the flight served to identify the plane and its aviator.

Commander Hawk's time for that journey from New York to Los Angeles was 13 hours, 26 minutes, a feat which made him famous. After several years of rapid dashes for a series of records, the aviator took up what he called "safety and comfort" flying. He quit the daring feats which had made him famous.

Ironically, as has been the case in several similar tragedies involving world famous aviators, Commander Hawk's death occurred on a routine flight where danger should have been far removed. His small plane caught in a string of wires, causing it to lose balance and plunge 50 feet to earth. The man who rocketed thousands of feet above the earth to aviation records thus died in a common-place accident. In the emergency he had no chance to call upon his skill which had won him a place as one of the nation's greatest aviators.

Blowing Off The Lid

The Republicans had their musing at the Morgan County Fair yesterday, and the Democrats will take over the ceremonies today. Hot weather and politics may not mix perfectly, but the crowds will show sufficient interest in the addresses by party leaders to realize that the next big event on the calendar is the fall election.

Republican candidates for major offices instinctively take after the New Deal and all that goes with it. Democratic aspirants for state and national offices naturally rush to its defense. If they wish to keep in the good graces of the administration, County and local candidates, however, in most instances prefer to greet the voters of their home bailiwicks and do as little talking on state or national issues as possible.

By listening to the speeches at the two political days at the county fair this week, voters can get a pretty good idea of what the big talking points will be in the fall campaign. The Republican and Democratic days this week are really the start of active campaigns in this territory.

The party spokesmen have said their pieces here. From now on everything will point to the big day in November, when the weather will be cooler, and the voters eager to let themselves to the polling places.

Careful of Matches

Europe has often been compared with a powder keg. If nobody touches a match to it, it may remain dormant for a long time. Just now the powder keg needs more careful guarding than ever before.

With Germany mobilizing a million men under arms, all the other nations are standing in tense anxiety as to just what will happen. Hitler says he is not going to attack anybody. But if the explosion comes, it will not be Hitler himself who will have applied the match.

The real danger is of some unplanned and unscheduled incident, perhaps along the border between Germany and some other country, especially Czechoslovakia.
A private quarrel may occur between soldiers of two countries casually thrown together. Somebody may get shot—or several somebodies.

Then there is serious danger, especially if the victims of a clash should be Germans, giving Hitler an excuse for punishing one of his neighbors.
If nobody drops a match in the powder keg until the present maneuvers are ended, perhaps Europe may have another year of peace.

SMALL TALK

Good morning. The first night of horse showing at the fair drew a good crowd. The grandstand wasn't filled, but there were enough people jammed on either side of the track to overflow the stand had they chosen to locate there.

The management certainly outdid itself in securing special entertainment features to punctuate the eleven nightly events of the horse show. Music, trick riding, tumbling, and what have you. It all makes a lengthy and interesting program.

Funny coincidence on the front page of the Courier Tuesday afternoon. If you read the six column sub-header then dropped down to the feature box head immediately below, you got this: "Government workers warned out of politics"—"sounds fishy." Hm-m-m, there was no slur intended, however, we can assure you.

Here are those arithmetic problems we spoke of yesterday. They are sent in by L. S. D. of Chandelville who states that they are taken, with no changes in wording or figures, from an arithmetic book used by Chandelville children in the '90s. The book was "Arithmetic by Grades," by John T. Prince, published in 1894.

The problems:
A Henry made four soldier caps and Lizzie 8. How many together?
B Ten little birds were sitting on the fence. How many feet were to be seen? (Ed's note: That's silly, they don't even say what kind of birds.)
C Three pretty doves, four white rabbits, six hens, and two kittens are out in the yard together. How many animals?

D How many feet have two cats and a kitten?

E How many legs have three house flies? (Ed's note: How many legs has one house fly?)

F How many wings have three spiders and three house flies?

G Four persons are riding horseback and twice as many are riding in a wagon. How many in all? (Answer penciled in book, 15. L. S. D.) (Ed's note: Must have been Grandpa.)

H How many legs have two flies and a bird?

Thanks, L. S. D., those are fun. They're pretty catchy though, getting into higher mathematics. As a local young gentleman once said, we could always get things like two plus two right quick. But when they got smart and said two apples and two apples, we had to knock off for the day.

We were glad to see Helen Kitzner take first honors in the opening event of the horse show last night. Helen is a very versatile young lady, but evidently is never so happy as when astride her beautiful mount, Match Point. The horse's name is indicative of the fact that Helen is also probably the best girl tennis player in town.

There's a bit of reason in that name, but sometimes we wonder where on earth some of the horses' names come from. There must be a mysterious country in the middle of some unexplored jungle where they name horses and make women's hats.

Well, the baby parade's tonight. (Last night when you read this.) But we won't have a chance to write about here until tomorrow. So we'll just anticipate that it should be a lot of fun. They always are. Anyway, see you there.

County Fair Notes

The high school and junior exhibit is housed under the grandstand. It is an attractive assortment of candies, cakes, cookies, canned fruits and vegetables, examples of sewing, domestic art, etc.

The big water tank maintained in the Farm Bureau tent by that organization is a busy place these hot days. Thousands of paper cups are being used, and in spite of the fact that waste baskets are convenient, many of the cups find their way to the ground around the tank.

The pony tents compose the kingdom of youth at the fair. Farm lads preside over the stalls for the most part. There are two tents this year, located in the shadiest part of the grounds.

A good allotment of geese and guineas keep the poultry tent lively, sounding alarms at the approach of visitors. There is a large exhibit of all kinds of poultry this year.
Ever try to drive a hog and get him exactly where you wanted him? The Four-H boys are past masters at getting their prize porkers in and out of the show ring, but even so, the pigs occasionally do a bit of wandering on their own account.

The minstrel show which was to have played the fair failed to arrive. Tuesday the tent which had been erected to house the troupe was being taken down.

Republican and Democrat headquarters are on the same side of the merchant's tent, but are separated by several booths. Other exhibitors in the tent feel that they have the situation under control. Candidates of both parties roam the fair grounds stalking elusive votes.

Best Five Gaited Horse in County

Miss Helen Kitzner, who has been showing horses for a long time at the Society Horse Show held in connection with the county fair, could have been knocked over with a feather Tuesday night when her mount, Match Point, captured the blue ribbon in the class for five gaited horses from Morgan county. Miss Kitzner is shown here talking it over with her horse after the big event.

BEHIND THE SCENES IN WASHINGTON

By RODNEY DUTCHER
Journal-Courier Washington Correspondent

Washington, Aug. 24.—As they used to say back in the days of Ramezes II, life is funny.

Dr. Willard L. Thorp, economist, is qualified to appreciate the fact. Thorp was recruited in earliest New Deal days to be director of the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce. As an Amherst professor he had made best use of his vote by registering as a Republican.

Theodore Bilbo, since known in Mississippi as "Pawnee General" because he was then clipping and pasting newspaper items for AAA at $6,000 a year learned of this skeleton in the Thorp closet and charged in his senatorial campaign against Senator Hubert Stephens that Stephens was the type of politician who supported R-publicans for office while many good Mississippians went plunk.

Stephens, as chairman of the Senate Commerce committee, answered this foul slur by blocking Thorp's confirmation and forcing him out. He was aided in this by patronage-minded minor officials of Thorp's bureau. These officials lobbied desperately against the director.

Thorp was given other important New Deal posts. Bilbo brat Stephens anyway and Stephens, after a brief lame-duck term as an RFC director, became a Washington lawyer-lobbyist.

You must know all this to appreciate such humor as this to appreciate the fact that Thorp lately has been reorganizing the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce. The last order of the bureau's political gang which helped cut Thorp's throat four years ago is out now—after a period in which the bureau fell apart from inefficiency and lack of leadership. More bureau shakeups are imminent.

Salary Lured Thorp

The real secretary of commerce now is Assistant Secretary Richard C. Patterson, Jr., recently executive vice president of the National Broadcasting Company. Roper took a long summer vacation. He left Patterson with the worst-run department in Washington and the job of doing something about the bureau.

Then on to Patterson was piled the department's assigned part in the so-called monopoly investigation. He looked through the department, once great in prestige under Herbert Hoover—whose special pet was the bureau—and couldn't find a single man he thought capable of producing the goods.

Just before NRA was busted Thorp had been chairman of its important Advisory Council. A. D. Whiteside, a member of the NRA administrative board and president of the famous New York firm of Dun & Bradstreet, was pulling out to return to his business and persuaded Thorp to become his firm's director of economic research as well as editor of Dun's Review. Thorp left to accept a salary

Buck Withdraws as Democrat Candidate For Cass Position

County Central Committee to Meet Soon to Pick Candidate

Beardstown—A letter announcing the withdrawal of Walter E. Buck of this city from the race for Cass county superintendent of schools in the November election was delivered to county clerk George D. Shultz at the courthouse in Virginia Tuesday morning by County Judge L. M. McClure of this city.

Buck, whose sixth four year term expires Aug. 1, 1939, was nominated in the April primary by Cass county Democrats. Republicans did not nominate a candidate in April, but since Buck's entrance in the Norbury sanitarium at Jacksonville the Republican central committee, headed by F. H. Gillen of this city, has nominated M. M. Cuff of Virginia to run for election on the Republican ticket in November.

Mr. Buck's withdrawal now leaves it to the Cass county Democratic central committee, headed by F. H. Trussell of Bluff Springs, to name a Democratic candidate for the office to seek election in November.

Frank Trussell, county Democratic chairman, said Tuesday when he formed of Buck's withdrawal that the county central committee will meet soon to name a party candidate.

GROPPLE BEAVERS WIN OVER OWNER
Decided to Let Animals Run Lake the Way They Want It Run

Jerseyville—The Groppe Lake beaver colony has a quarrel with L. E. Groppe, the lake owner, who has sought to control the level of the water in the lake by an outlet pipe. On several occasions the animals plugged the outlet and Groppe opened it. Finally he built a wire enclosure some distance from the outlet pipe, so the beavers could not get to it.

Determined to have more water and a larger lake, the beavers got busy and plugged and dammed the wire netting restraining them from the outlet pipe until they had covered it over.
"Might as well let them have their way," Groppe decided when he saw the determination. "They seem to have a general plan for handling the lake, and it might be interesting as well as valuable to find out just what they have in mind."

Federated Clubs to Honor Miss Earhart

Foundation Set Up to Raise Memorial to Aviator: Mrs. Roosevelt Head

The "Winged Woman" Amelia Earhart, will be honored in a memorial foundation in which the Federation of Women's clubs and the Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs will cooperate. It is probable that the Twentieth district clubs will make a contribution.

The foundation was inaugurated at a meeting at the White House by invitation of Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt. It was created by the trustees of Thiel College, Greenville, Pa., the first co-educational Lutheran college of the United States, with which the Earhart family had been connected for more than seventy years. She received from Thiel College in 1932 the degree of Doctor of Science. Though offered a great many degrees she accepted but one other.

Before her last flight, Amelia Earhart flew to Cleveland to meet the president of the college to discuss plans for the college in the name of her father.

Mrs. Roosevelt has accepted the honorary chairmanship of the foundation. It is the hope of the directors to make this a living memorial in the form of a scholarship or scholarships in science and sociology. The local B and P Women's club is particularly interested since that organization sponsored her as a speaker on their program in this city.

Davis Gives One Hit, Cards Blank Dodgers; Cubs Trounce Giants

St. Louis, Aug. 24.—(P.)—The Cubs of the National League today gave the Cardinals a one-hit performance in a 1-0 victory. The Cardinals, who were favored to win, were shut out by the Cubs in a game that was played at St. Louis.

The Cubs, who were managed by Charlie Grimm, were led by pitcher Lefty Williams, who pitched a complete game and gave up only one run. Williams was aided by catcher Gus Van Meter, who made several key plays.

The Cardinals, managed by Lloyd Moseley, were led by pitcher Dizzy Dean, who pitched six innings and gave up three runs. The Cardinals' offense was stifled by the Cubs' defense.

The game was played at the Sportsman's Field in St. Louis. The crowd was estimated to be around 10,000. The Cubs' victory was their fourth in a row.

The Cardinals' record stands at 44-40, while the Cubs' record is 43-41. The Cardinals are in first place in the National League, while the Cubs are in second place.

The Cardinals' next game is scheduled for Friday night at St. Louis. The Cubs' next game is scheduled for Friday night at Chicago.

The Cardinals' manager, Lloyd Moseley, said that his team was disappointed in the loss. He said that his pitchers did not pitch well enough.

The Cubs' manager, Charlie Grimm, said that his team was pleased with the win. He said that his pitchers did a great job.

The Cardinals' fans were disappointed in the loss. They said that their team was the better team and that they deserved to win.

Pony Races Just as Thrilling

Pony races are thrilling the crowd this year just as much as last year. The upper photo shows Lyndie Hunt coming home a winner in a tight race in the quarter-mile dash for small ponies, while, below, Wilma Smith, is the only one in the picture which shows a generous amount of the track. There were several other ponies in the half mile race, but Wilma won with ease despite the fact that her mount was handicapped several feet at the start.

Begin Match Play In National Public Links Golf Tourney

Sixty-four Survive Opening Rounds; Golfing Fireman Is Favorite

Cleveland, Aug. 24.—(P.) A fast field of shotmakers who learned the game between "punching out and in" at office, factory and shop today swung into the stretch drive for the national public links championship.

Sixty-four players, survivors of a two-day 36-hole qualifying test, began match play over the new eighteen hole course, longest and more difficult of Highland Park's two layouts. Two 18-hole rounds were on the day's program, with 18-hole duels continuing Thursday to 36-hole matches in the semi-finals Friday and the final title battle Saturday over the same route.

Favored players and "dark horses" studied both layouts.

Bruce McCormick of Los Angeles, the defending champion, who gets in his golf between tricks of fire fighting, still rated the favorite's role because of his victory in 1937, but he had a tough match on his hands today with Lloyd Nordstrom of Indianapolis, medalist in 1935.

The chances of Walter Burkemo of Detroit were well liked by many observers. He captured medalist honors with a 141 total, getting a 69 yesterday on the new eighteen.

One public links honors was decided yesterday. Los Angeles' unit of McCormick, Don Erickson, George Lance and Nell Whitney won the Harding trophy, awarded the four man team with the low 36-hole stroke aggregate with a total of 583 shots.

White Hall Woman At 98th Milestone

Quite Active Despite Many Years: Lived With One Family 4 Generations

White Hall—Miss Mary Wood was 98 years old Wednesday August 24. She resides with Mr. and Mrs. Peter Roodhouse on Jacksonville street. No special observance of the day was made except that a few of her closest friends called on her during the day.

Miss Wood has resided with the Roodhouse family for four generations.

Although Miss Wood is nearing the century mark she is still quite active and takes a great pride in assisting with the housework and with her flowers. She goes about outside the house as well as inside and takes great interest in her personal appearance, never failing to dress for the afternoon every day. Because her hearing is not so good as formerly she does not go out from the home so much any more but enjoys having her friends in her home. Her brother, William Wood of Chesterfield who is 83 years old spent Sunday with her. Miss Wood was formerly active in the affairs of the Methodist church and occasionally attends services there yet. However, an accident in which she suffered a broken hip a few years ago makes it difficult for her to go up and down stairs.

Hassett Family to Leave

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Hassett who have been here visiting with his mother, Mrs. Hassett, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Dyer on North Main street, left Wednesday for Washington, D. C., and then go to New York to sail on September 9, to Manila in the Philippine Islands where Lt. Col. Hassett will be stationed for the next two years. They were transferred from Fort Ethan Allen in New Jersey. Lt. Col. and Mrs. Hassett spent two years in the Philippines once before.

Family Reunion Held

A family reunion was held at the George Dyer home Sunday in farwell to Lt. Col. and Mrs. W. W. Hassett. Others present were her sisters, Mrs. Ethel Dyer Hamilton of Urbana, and Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Allen and daughter, Betty Ann, of White Hall; Mr. and Mrs. John Hepworth of Havana; Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Strode of Canton; Mr. and Mrs. Foster Mitchell and son of Havana.

Miss Clara Cole of Wood River is visiting for two weeks in the home of her uncle, Carl Cloninger.

Miss Eva Green of Jacksonville visited Thursday in the home of her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Boes.

Mrs. Anna Fuss returned Wednesday to her home after visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hullinger.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Bunch, Mr. and Mrs. Cy Baird, Mrs. Edna Cloninger, and daughter, Betty, were state fair visitors Wednesday.

Delores and Mary Steinbaker visited relatives in Oxville Thursday while their mother, Mrs. Gladys Steinbaker of Jacksonville, Mr. and Mrs. James Howl, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Thomas and daughter, Mildred, attended a meeting in Mt. Sterling.

Motorcycles To Race Over Dirt Oval This Afternoon; List Card

Harness horses put on some thrilling speed events for a half-grandstand full of people who dared the blistering heat to come out Wednesday afternoon, and motorcycles will put on the thrills this afternoon. Friday will wind up the speed program with another bunch of horse races, and indications were that the field would be larger for the wind-up than it was for the first races held yesterday.

None of the harness horses were able to win all heats of their races yesterday, but May E. Guy, driven by and owned by Mr. Harris, of Plymouth, took the 2:19 pace by winning two heats, and Billy Direct, owned and driven by Mr. Bartlett, of Griggsville, won the 2:22 trot with two heat victories.

Between 10 and 12 motorcycles will be entered in the eight events listed for the cyclists, three of whom finished in first, second and third places at the Illinois State Fair races last Saturday. Basil Sorrells, manager of the mechanized speed program, said that following the races here today, the three men would depart with several others for races in the eastern part of the United States.

May E. Guy Goes Fastest

May E. Guy ran the fastest mile of the day, a 2:08 1/2 dash that won the first from King Ellis by a neck. King Ellis took the pole away from Jesse Earl in the three horse race, and his Pittsfield driver, Ralph Harp, kept him on the rail through the first half mile. Coming down the stretch in the first lap, May stepped out in front by a neck but had to go all the way around the curve on the outside, and most of the way down the backstretch before he was able to get her nose out in front again.

She was still ahead at the last turn but still on the outside, and when the two horses came down the stretch they were racing as Starter Lloyd Seeley of White Hall described it as a team. Jesse Earl owned and driven by Dave Neal of Roodhouse, was third by a length and a half.

The second heat wasn't much of a contest with May stepping out from her pole position to hold the lead all the way with King Ellis trailing and Jesse Earl right behind. The horses went the distance in 2:16, the slowest mile of the day.

King Ellis made his successful bid for a heat victory in the final mile, beating out May by a head in a driving finish that brought the grandstand to its feet. The horses paced the final mile in 2:11 1/2.

Billy Direct Split Heats

Billy Direct also split his heats with Jean Potemkin in a race that brought forth one runaway. Billy won the first and last heats after Jean Potemkin had taken the second heat in a driving finish by a head.

Calumet Earl driven and owned by Ray Cline, of Springfield, tossed his driver at the end of the first half of the first heat. The Earl broke stride as he went under the wire on the first lap and in trying to get him under control, owner Cline was pitched from the sulky. Riderless, Earl continued around the oval, finishing in third place in the race, but of course being disqualified, and placed in fourth position.

After finishing the mile Earl continued circling the track with reckless ease, galloping the first half, and then dropping to a trot. He ran around the oval two more times, and was on another lap when a group of men pounced on him in the backstretch.

The Earl was pretty tired after this experience, but was good enough to finish splendid thirds in the remaining two mile heats of the race Jean Potemkin, driven by Mr. Crane of Jerseyville for P. Miller, also of Jerseyville, after rushing Billy Direct out of first money for the second heat, lost the final heat with another thrilling finish. Billy won the final heat by a head.

Roy Evans' pony, from Murrayville, ridden by young Clarkson, captured the quarter-mile dash for small ponies in 33 seconds, but had a hard run to get the money. Dr. R. C. Henley started the midgits.

Richard Huston's pony defeated a pony owned by Cree Smith in the half mile dash, but Wilma was not in the saddle for the race. Huston's pony won by a nose in an exciting finish in which the riders of the two ponies came down the stretch so close together that they could have changed ponies without trouble. The dash went in 50 1/2 seconds.

In a special match, Wilma Smith rode her sorrel pony to a victory over Jim Wallace's horse, ridden by his son. The Wallace horse got left at the post by about seven lengths, and the race ended with the mounts in about the same position:

The results:

HELEN MOODY OUT OF TENNIS TOURNEY

New York, Aug. 24.—(P.)—Pained by neuritis, Mrs. Helen Moody, Moore yesterday withdrew reluctantly from the National Women's Tennis championships beginning Sept. 8 at Forest Hills, and in a letter combining letters to the United States Tennis association person what she named her "fare-thee-well" to the game.

A severe attack of neuritis, she said, had made it impossible for her to play since her recent return from England, where she defeated her longtime rival, Helen Jacobs, in the finals of the all-England championships.

Her physician, Dr. John S. Davis, Jr. said recovery from the malady was a slow process, often requiring a year's treatment.

Cleveland Trims Boston Sox, 5 to 3

Boston, Aug. 24.—(P.)—Bruce Campbell's big bat and Mel Harder's stung hurling gave the Cleveland Indians a 5 to 3 victory over the Boston Red Sox today, but the Sox retained a bare percentage hold on second place in the American League.

By innings: R H E
Cleveland 5 5 11 0
Boston 3 3 10 2

Two Buildings Lost In Carrollton Fire; Others Threatened

Low Water Pressure Balks Firemen; Temperature Rises to 103

Carrollton—Fire of unknown origin was discovered in a frame barn in the rear of the lot occupied by Louis Ballard and family, on Third between Maple and Sycamore, at 12:45 p. m. Tuesday. On arrival, the fire department found the flames had enveloped the entire interior of the structure, which was about 50 feet square and had burst thru the roof in several places, and had started a fire in a small building on the north of the barn.

For a time it appeared that the flames were going to get out of control. Water pressure was very low. All that saved a general conflagration was the fact that there was very little wind blowing. As it was flying embers set fire to the roof of the dwelling of Mrs. Carrie Granger, a block and one-half away, and to the roof of a shed of O. Standefer, a block distant. Little damage was done to either of those buildings.

After the fire was apparently under control, the water was shut off in an effort to arrange hose lines so that more pressure could be gotten. In a few minutes the flames had again gained such headway that they mounted upwards of a hundred feet and the heat was intense for a full block. The burned building was owned by William Tucker and was valued at about $500.00 and was fully covered by insurance.

The contents were owned by Louis Ballard, who carried no insurance. Contents consisted of 70 bales of clover hay, a large number of tools, a load of coal, some feed, and other things, all of which were valued at probably $120.00. A pole and cables of the Illinois Telephone Co. was damaged by heat. Gardens of Ballard and others were trampled or damaged by heat. No cause of the fire could be given unless spontaneous combustion or the sun's rays shining on a reflector. At the time of the fire the

Mrs. Erma Trussell Wins Nomination For School Office
Cass County Democrat In Session Select Bluff Springs Woman
Virginia, Aug. 24.—The Cass County Democratic Central committee in session here tonight nominated Mrs. Erma Trussell of Bluff Springs as the party's candidate for Cass county superintendent of schools in the November election.
Mrs. Trussell's nomination came after the resignation of Walter E. Buck, the nominee, who is now in a Jacksonville sanatorium.
She made the race in the Democratic primary in 1932 against Buck but was defeated.
Mrs. Trussell has been a teacher in the Cass county schools for a number of years.
Her name will be placed on the ballot and she will make the race in the fall against M. M. O'fluff of Virginia, the Republican candidate.

LaFollette Upholds Roosevelt's "Purge"
Madison, Wis., Aug. 24.—(AP)—Senator Robert M. LaFollette, Jr., said today he sees "nothing wrong in having the president go to the people and tell them what senators have supported his program and what senators have opposed it."
"After all," the senator continued, "it's not coercing the voters when he does that."
LaFollette, who has returned to Madison for the remainder of the year, said he would make several campaign speeches, and would oppose the candidacy of Senator F. Ryan Duffy, who seeks the Democratic nomination for reelection in the September 20 primary.

The Welch and Hackney Tandem class brought another first place to Mrs. Thompson. In this difficult event, she drove her Mitzie and Mate expertly for the blue ribbon. Ralph Peak won another second place, handling Fleetwood Foam and mate, Lulu Belle and mate of the Hudson and Jones stables at Waverly, driven by Mr. Jones, brought the white ribbon of third, with Mrs. Thompson's Swell Time and mate in fourth and Richmond's Carnation Flame and mate, driven by Mr. Stone, in fifth.

Morgan County Roadster
George Peak, dean of all horse showmen, drove W. C. Thompson's All Spring to victory in the Morgan County roadster class. This was obviously what the crowd wanted, Mr. Peak receiving a great ovation as he put in his appearance. Second place was taken by Carmine of the Gray Stables, driven by Mr. Roach. The Gray Stables' other entry, Susy Q, handled by Mr. Fitzsimmons, placed third. Fourth place was taken by the W. C. Thompson stable.
The final class of the evening was the Shetland pair. Pat O'Hair was the first place winner with his Sam and Skaner. Other winners in order were Magie and mate of the Hudson and Jones stables driven by Mr. Jones; Corita and Cacheta of the Gray and Hughes stables driven by Mr. Hughes; Locust Flame and Blue Heaven owned and driven by Mrs. A. C. Thompson and Flash and mate of the Hudson and Jones stables.

American interests hold a 45 per cent share of the Aviation Corporation and the Chinese government holds the remainder.
Corporation officials said the Japanese probably thought the plane was carrying Dr. Sun Fat, head of the legislative council of China, just returned from Europe where he had sought foreign aid against the Japanese.
It was learned that Dr. Sun had cancelled his reservation overnight and had flown to Hankow, where he arrived safely at noon today.

McCauley Flays Horner Tax Program In Address At Fair

Packed Stands Applaud High Steppers; Society Horse Show Big Success

A crowd that jam-packed the grandstand and overflowed along either side of the track witnessed the second night of the Morgan County Fair horse show. They saw additional evidence of the fact that Mrs. A. C. Thompson and the Peaks are the outstanding showmen of this area. Dividing top honors in several of the classes, Mrs. Thompson of Elmhurst and the Winchester Peaks walked away with the lion's share of the ribbons.

Endurance Driver "Feels Fine" But Hasn't Had Sleep

Jack Cross Admits He May Get Drowsy Tonight In 100 Hour Journey

With over one third of his 100-hour endurance drive tucked away, Jack Cross was still going strong. "I didn't even get sleepy last night," Cross said yesterday. "I feel fine, but I'll probably get a little drowsy Thursday night. I intend to do the third night and then I snap out of it until near the last."

Jack had a great time during the night policemen around. He spoke of them as being a great bunch of fellows. His physical appearance gave no indication of the fatigue one would expect to see in a man who has gone over 36 hours without sleep.

He ate only light food Tuesday and yesterday made his stops at the firms that are supplying his needs. He has eaten all his meals at the Dunlap Coffee Shop. He stopped at the Producers Dairy for milk and later went to Henry's Jewelry Store where he had a shave with a Schick Electric razor. He also stopped at Hopper & Hamlin's G. E. Refrigerator for a bottle of Coca Cola.

During the afternoon he made several trips out to the fair grounds where large crowds gathered around him.

Safety Rewards Given
Cross had several free tickets to the Fox Illinois theater which he gave to the most careful and courteous drivers that he met. He didn't say who they were but he did say they were all men.

Jack reports that there have been a great many phone calls asking him to take them for a ride. Some just wanted rides, others wanted him to take them to the show or to the fair grounds.

H. L. Sponsler, Camel cigarette salesman, was in Jacksonville yesterday and immediately looked up Jack and gave him a generous supply of Camels. Jack is a heavy smoker and depends on them to keep his nerves steady.

No water or oil has been added to the car and the motor has not been turned off since the drive started.

O. H. Buhrman Buys Dennis Schram's Interest in Firm

Schram & Buhrman Jewelry Partnership Dissolves; Continue Business

Dissolution of the jewelry store firm of Schram & Buhrman, bringing to a close a partnership of 30 years, was announced yesterday by Dennis Schram and Otto H. Buhrman. The business will be continued by Mr. Buhrman in the same location, No. 37 South Side Square, as he has become sole owner of the business.

Mr. Buhrman said yesterday the firm name of Schram & Buhrman will be retained for the present. Mr. Schram, one of the city's oldest and best known business men, disposed of his interest in the jewelry firm because he wishes to retire. He expects to go to Champaign to make his home with his niece, Mrs. John H. Breen and family.

Schram & Buhrman's store at the corner of South Main street and the square has long been a landmark in the business section. Mr. Buhrman will continue the business under the same policies as during the years of partnership.

Mr. Schram began the business of watchmaker and jeweler in Jacksonville in 1892 with the F. H. Stebbins jewelry store, which was founded in 1865. He acquired the business sometime later, and in 1908 formed a partnership which continued until yesterday.

In announcing retirement Mr. Schram expressed regret that he is leaving familiar surroundings and many warm friends, stating that he is old enough to quit active business and take it easy.

Mrs. Mary Liter's Death Occurs At Home of Relative

Morgan County Woman Had Spent Past 3 Months At Wood River

Mrs. Mary R. Liter, widow of the late Leonard R. Liter, passed away yesterday morning at 10:45 o'clock at the home of her niece, Mrs. B. L. Tucker, in Wood River, where she had been making her home for the past three months. She was for many years a well known resident of the Littleberry neighborhood.

The decedent was born near Little Indian August 13, 1862, daughter of Thomas and Emaline Stoltz. Her husband died Jan. 15, 1927.

Surviving are eight nieces and nephews. Her parents, one brother, John Holtzman, and one sister, Mrs. John Waisell, preceded her in death.

Mrs. Liter was a member of the Mt. Zion Methodist church.

The remains were brought to the Guilham Funeral Home in this city. Funeral services will be held Saturday morning at 10 o'clock at the Littleberry Baptist church. Rev. William J. Boston officiating. Interment will be in the Literberry cemetery.

HOLD SERVICES FOR MRS. IMA E. LEAKE

Funeral services for Mrs. Ima Elliott Leake were held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Reynolds Chapel, Rev. M. M. Blair of Centenary M. E. church officiating. Interment was made in Memorial Lawn cemetery.

Music was furnished by a quartet composed of Ben Denney, Emmerson Lewis and A. W. Waltman of this city, and Maurice Peckman of Peoria.

The floral tributes were in care of nieces of Mrs. Leake, including Helen McCarty, Gladys Elliott, Frances and Lila Elliott and Irene Morris.

The casket bearers were John Vasey, Albert Richardson, Vincent Riley, George Riley, Herbert Mawson and John Lazenby.

MISS BROOKS HOME FROM EASTERN TOUR

Miss Elizabeth Brooks, principal of the Illinois School for the Blind, returned Wednesday from a three weeks' trip to the east coast, the north limit at York Beach, Maine; the south limit at New York City.

Inland the party visited Gettysburg and traveled fine new highways in the mountains of West Virginia. Miss Brooks was accompanied by her niece, Miss Dorothy Bellamy, a graduate of last June from Florida State College for Women, and two former pupils of the School for the Blind, Bradley Burton of Chicago and Marion Bruges of Granite City, graduates of the class of 1936 and 1937.

Miss Bellamy returned to her home in Tallahassee Monday and the two boys are spending this week with Arthur Murri in Vienna, Ill.

HENRY'S JEWELRY STORE

AT MORGAN COUNTY FAIR

Allice Sixty and her trick horses are giving daily performances at the Morgan county fairgrounds. Her most difficult feat will be performed Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock when she will ride two horses over an automobile. Miss Sixty stands on the two horses, one foot on each animal, as they both leap over the machine. Miss Sixty claims to be the only woman to ride two horses at once as they leap over a car.

The single jump will be given.

Cleverly Costumed Babies Parade At Fair; Norma Jean Cully Wins

Kiddies, forty of them, representing everything from Sally Rand to Huckleberry Finn, from Snow White to Dopey, paraded before a crowded grandstand last night in the annual Morgan County Fair Baby Parade. Cleverly costumed and getting a big kick out of the whole proceedings, the little people completely won the hearts of the audience. The things that counted in the judging were originality of costume, appearance and behavior. Each and everyone proved to be a natural showman.

Little Miss Norma Jean Cully, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Cully, walked away with first honors. Miss Cully, garbed as Mistress Mary, was chosen as the one having the best costume and conducting herself in the best A number one baby parade manner. The judges were in a real dither by the time the judging was finished, but Norma Jean stood at the head of the list.

Edgar J. McGinnis Becomes Sick And Dies In Few Hours

Passes Away At Home After Becoming Ill At Work At State School

Edgar John McGinnis, industrial superintendent at the Illinois School for the Deaf, died suddenly at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon at his home, a few hours after he complained of illness and was forced to quit work at the state school.

Acute indigestion or heart attack may have been the cause of death, or the extreme heat could have been responsible for his illness. However, the exact cause of death will not be determined until an inquest called for this morning by Coroner Elmer Sample.

Mr. McGinnis' death came as a sudden blow to his family and friends. He had been in apparent health when he went to the school earlier in the day.

After complaining of illness, he was taken home by Joe Hennessy, a plumber at the school, who with Mrs. McGinnis were at the bedside when the end came unexpectedly.

When it was realized his condition was serious calls were placed for two physicians, Dr. Harold S. Bowman and Dr. Reginald Norris arriving at the home shortly after death occurred.

Mr. McGinnis was born here Feb. 28, 1894, youngest son of Michael and Ellen McGinnis. He received his education in the parochial school and Routh college. During the World War he served with the American forces in France. He was a member of the Church of Our Saviour.

On Oct. 22, 1918, Mr. McGinnis was united in marriage with Frances Needham, who with one son, Edgar John, survives. Other members of the family are the father, Michael McGinnis, and three brothers, Leo, Joseph and Francis McGinnis. His mother and one brother, Walter, preceded him in death.

The remains were prepared for burial at the O'Donnell & Reavy funeral parlors, and will be removed this afternoon to the family residence at 564 North Diamond street.

Funeral services will be held Friday morning at nine o'clock at the Church of Our Saviour, with burial in Calvary cemetery.

Denounces Increase In Revenue; Democrats To Speak This Afternoon

Charges that "Henry Horner is trying to cram another hand-picked ticket down the throats of the people of Illinois," and demands to know what has become of $40,000,000 of state funds "collected from the tables of the working people of this state," were made to crowded stands at the county fair grounds yesterday by William R. McCauley, Republican candidate for state treasurer, in a Republican Day address at the fair. The speaker pointed out campaign promises told the people he would reduce taxes and run the state economically.

"When the people elected him," said McCauley, "the first thing he did was to remove the state property tax rate of fifty cents on the $100 valuation. He took that tax off every railroad and every big corporation in the state, as well as from the homes and farms of the people. That tax amounted to $24,000,000 a year, and it was sufficient to operate the state government."

"In the place of that property tax which he took off big business, Henry Horner gave the people of Illinois the 3 per cent sales tax, placing it on the market baskets and the breakfast tables of the workers. With that tax he raised $80,000,000 a year. With liquor and utility taxes he has added another $20,000,000 a year. What has he done with the difference between $24,000,000 and $100,000,000 a year he has taken from the pockets of the people?"

"He tells us the money has gone to replace the state property tax, and that they spent $36,000,000 a year for relief. That makes only $60,000,000. I defy Horner's speakers here tomorrow to tell us what has become of the other $40,000,000."

Today's Program
Several hundred persons listened to the addresses of the Republican candidates, the Republican Day program at the fair being the first fracture of the day. Immediately following the speaking program harness racing took place and last evening the annual baby parade was held and the second society horse show was staged.

Today has been designated as Democratic Day at the fair with a program that is to proceed the motorcycle races in the afternoon. Louie Lewis, speaker of the house and candidate for state treasurer on the state ticket and Judge James M. Barnes, of this city, candidate for congressman of the 20th district will be the principal speakers. Other Democratic candidates will be presented to the grandstand audience.

The first of the two principal speakers was Stephen A. Day, Republican candidate for Congressman at Large. He charged that the "Roosevelt dynasty" is seeking to perpetuate itself in office, and pleaded with the people to place men in Congress who will uphold the Constitution and protect the Bill of Rights. He referred to New Deal Congressmen as "rubber stamp" men and "coat-tail riders," unwilling to protect the rights of the people.

"But," Day continued, "men who esteemed the good of the nation above party and dared to oppose the enslaving of the Supreme Court are now being hunted and destroyed by the New Deal leaders. Their only crime was to vote for what they believe to be right."

This may be the last Congress you will get a chance to elect; for if the Roosevelt dynasty is perpetuated in office, the bill of rights and the constitution will be destroyed. Mr. Roosevelt in a third term may have a chance to name the rest of the members of the Supreme Court and make that body subservient to a dictatorship. A bill of rights cannot be protected without a court."

Gail Ranson, county chairman of the Republican Central Committee, called the meeting to order and introduced the candidates on the county ticket: Fred McGinnis for commissioner, A. H. Unland for superintendent of schools, Ed Williamson for sheriff, George Douglas for county clerk, Earl Hembrough for assessor and treasurer, and Paul Fenstermaker for county judge.

He then turned the meeting over to Hugh Green, who presented the state candidates. He introduced Robert Conn, candidate for clerk of the Appellate Court, and Stuart E. Pierson, candidate for Congress from the 20th district. William Lawler, who with Mr. Green is a candidate for representative in the General Assembly, spoke briefly at the close of the meeting.

McCauley Speaks
Mr. Green introduced the candidate for treasurer, Mr. McCauley, as having been twice elected department commander of the American Legion. He was in the state senate for four years. In discussing national issues he pointed out that farmers of the United States are facing lower prices than ever before when the depreciated value of the dollar is considered. After five years of the New Deal foreign markets for our farm products are gone, and the corn farmer of the middle west is losing his domestic market, as his crop is moved from the corn belt to the cotton belt in the south.

The speaker blamed the "good neighbor" policy of Roosevelt for the present low farm prices and the terrific inroads on the domestic market being made by foreign goods. He compared imports of foreign farm products, showing an alarming increase in five years. He submitted the
